Jewish By Choice
Shavuot 5779
Saturday June 8-9 at Nevei Kodesh
1925 Glenwood, Boulder 80304

It has been said that in the modern age, every Jew is a Jew by choice.

This Shavuot, June 8-9, as we celebrate the receiving of Torah and the making of the Jewish people, we will hear from those who have been through a formal process of conversion, as well as from Boulder's rabbis and Jewish teachers, reflecting on the nature of covenant and exploring what it means both to choose and to be “chosen.”

7pm - Seudah Shlishit (third meal of Shabbat)
7:30 - "Why I Choose Judaism:" A Panel of Individuals Speak About Their Conversion Journey
8:45 - Personal and Group Spiritual Practice

9:18 Candle Lighting
9:30 - A Panel of Boulder's Rabbis Discuss
10:30 - Kiddush and Cheesecake Oneg
11:00-11:50pm - Class: Welcoming The Convert
12-12:30am - Midnight Meditation
12:45-1:40am - Class: What Is "Chosenness"?
1:45-2:40am - Class: Covenant and Choice
2:45am-4:15am - Sacred Study and Discussion
